AALA ELECTS PAT DILLON AS PRESIDENT-ELECT

Pat Dillon, founder of Dillon Law, P.C. in Sumner and Volga City, Iowa, was recently elected to serve as President-Elect for the American Agricultural Law Association (AALA). Pat Dillon has been an AALA member since 2002. Pat's practice involves working with farm clients on a variety of issues including FSA/USDA issues, business succession and planning, real estate, taxation, probate and the litigation that accompanies each of those areas. Pat also serves as the general counsel to 10 small cities in northeast Iowa and several nonprofits. He has served as a Board Member of AALA, an interim executive director of AALA, and section chief of the Ag Section of the Iowa State Bar. Pat has published books on Ag Law, and writes a monthly news article on Ag Law issues for the local paper.

As President-Elect Pat will also lead the AALA's conference planning efforts for its 2020 annual education symposium to be held in Kansas City, Missouri November 12-14, 2020.

Established in 1980, the American Agricultural Law Association is a national professional association serving as the premier association for agricultural law and policy professionals. Its mission is informing and engaging the law and policy professionals who serve all facets of the agricultural and food communities. For more information, visit aglaw-assn.org.
