

Teena G. Gunter

Teena G. Gunter is the General Counsel for the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food, and Forestry and has been with the Department for twenty years. She also serves as the Director for the Agricultural Environmental Management Services Division for the agency and the Director of the Commercial Pet Breeders and Animal Shelter Licensing Program. She worked in the water quality programs of the agency and served as the Deputy General Counsel prior to being named General Counsel in 2011.

Ms. Gunter holds an LL.M. in Agricultural Law (1997) and a J.D. (1992) from the University of Arkansas School of Law in Fayetteville, Arkansas, in addition to a B.A. in English (1989) from Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas.

Ms. Gunter is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association and the American Agricultural Law Association. She served as an officer for the Oklahoma Bar Association's Environmental Law Section. She is privileged to serve on the National Board of Directors for the Arkansas Alumni Association and currently serves as President of the organization. She is a dedicated member of the Greater Oklahoma City Chapter of the Arkansas Alumni Association, serving in various capacities, including president and treasurer. She also volunteers as an usher at Peoples Church in Oklahoma City.

Ms. Gunter lives in Oklahoma City with her husband, Allen, four dogs and one cat. She is an avid fan of the Arkansas Razorbacks, the Oklahoma City Thunder, and NFL football.