

Jessica B. Horwitz

International Trade, Customs and Regulatory Lawyer

Jessica B. Horwitz is an international trade, customs and regulatory lawyer at Bennett Jones LLP in Toronto, Canada. She advises Canadian and international clients on a broad range of trade and investment matters, including import/export compliance, customs audits, trade remedy inquiries, WTO law, bilateral and regional free trade agreements, anti-corruption compliance, controlled goods and technology, economic sanctions, product regulation and labelling, corporate social responsibility and other cross-border issues. Jessica represents clients in trade verifications by the Canada Border Services Agency, trade remedy and appeal proceedings before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal and the Federal Court of Appeal, and regulatory investigations by the RCMP, the CBSA, Global Affairs Canada and other domestic and foreign law enforcement agencies. She conducts internal investigations into potential trade compliance violations and assists businesses in designing and implementing anti-corruption controls and import/export compliance programs. Jessica is the immediate past Chair of the Ontario Bar Association International Law Section and current Co-Chair of the International Trade Committee of the ABA Section of International Law.